MTBC Secures a Spot on Deloitte's 2012 Technology Fast 500 List

(Somerset, NJ) – November 15, 2012 – MTBC, a leading provider of proprietary electronic health record software (EHR), practice management (PM) and revenue cycle management (RCM) solutions, announced today that it has been named a Deloitte Technology Fast 500 company. This award was announced at a ceremony on November 14, 2012 at Andaz 5th Avenue in New York and is based upon Deloitte's recognition that MTBC is one of the fastest growing technology companies in the US.

The Deloitte Technology Fast 500™ program ranks the 500 fastest growing technology, media, telecommunications, life sciences and clean technology companies in North America. Inclusion in the Technology Fast 500 ranking requires robust growth and cutting edge product innovation. This is the fourth consecutive year that MTBC has been honored with this prestigious award.

David Rosenblum, MTBC Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors, attributed the company's growth to its innovative and affordable technology solutions. He said, "We are indeed honored to be ranked among the fastest growing companies in the country for the fourth year in a row. This undoubtedly demonstrates the value that our software and services add to healthcare practices throughout the US."

Stephen Snyder, MTBC's President, explained, "Traditional reimbursement models and practice and clinical workflows are undergoing rapid and fundamental changes. We believe that these changes will help us further accelerate our growth, since our solutions are specifically designed to support these emerging models and paradigms."

Overall, Deloitte's 2012 Technology Fast 500™ companies achieved revenue growth ranging from 128 percent to 279,684 percent from 2007 to 2011, with an average growth of 2,774 percent.
